

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
RECORDS & COMMUNICATIONS
Campus Newspaper
EG 1-12-15
9-28-95

Lucy Kubiszyn, editor
January 10, 1982

YE GODS! DR. PERRY'S COURSE HAS BEGUN

"Ye Gods," Dr. Charles Perry's popular course on Greek and Roman mythology aired for the first time Saturday evening, January 9, over WCFT-TV. Fifteen other 30-minute segments are scheduled for viewing over the next few months.

A special myth contest is scheduled for West Alabamians with cash prizes and scholarships awarded the winners. There will be three divisions of the contest: elementary (grades 1-8); high school (grades 1-12); and adult. Dr. Perry will select first, second and third place winners in all three divisions and Jack Kubiszyn Insurance Agency will award a scholarship to Shelton State Junior College for the winner of the high school division. The deadline for all entries in the myth contest is March 31, 1983.

APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE FOR MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT

Applications for the 1983 Miss Shelton State Pageant are now available and may be obtained from Judy Austin or Sandra Day. Deadline for returning the applications is 4 p.m. on Monday, January 24. The Miss Shelton State Pageant will be held in the junior college auditorium on Saturday evening, February 12, and is open to any student of Shelton State Community College meeting the required criteria. The winner of the Pageant will compete in the Miss Alabama Pageant in Birmingham next summer and could ultimately compete for the title of Miss America.

The winner of the Miss Shelton State Pageant will receive scholarship money as well as gifts from local merchants. This is the third year for the Miss Shelton State pageant and many opportunities have opened up for the winners of the past years, according to Mrs. Austin.

A special one-day workshop will be conducted by the junior college on Saturday, January 29 for all contestants. Special classes will be set up during this day for the girls to receive instruction in poise, makeup, interview, and talent. For more information, contact Mrs. Austin, Ms. Day, or Lucy Kubiszyn.

$1,046,250 APPROVED FOR SHELTON

The Alabama Public School Authority in Montgomery this week approved the release of $2.8 million for five junior college campuses in the state. This figure includes $1,046,250 that was allocated to Shelton State Community College for the purchase of the facility, including 10 acres of parking at 202 Skyland in Tuscaloosa. The money is part of a $520 million bond issue sold by the state last year as a result of a one-time $449.2 million oil and gas windfall of offshore state mineral lease bonuses.

SWIM-A-ROBICS JOINS AEROBIC DANCING

Beginning January 18, swim-a-robics will be taught on Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 - 10:30 a.m. in the natatorium by Cheree Causey. The 16-session course will cost $30, and Cheree guarantees you don't have to be a swimmer to enjoy it. Aerobic dancing will also be taught at Shelton State beginning January 17 at 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday and 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday (advanced class). For more information, contact Cheree at 556-2541.

ATTENTION! RTI STUDENTS

Applications for RTI for the fall term have arrived. Contact Mary Anne A. Thomas in the counseling center. In order to make application to the RTI through the Shelton linkage program, the applicant must have completed 15 hours of transferrable credit and have a grade point average of 2.0 (C) or better in all course work attempted.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FOLLOWING STUDENTS WHO HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED TO THE RESPIRATORY THERAPY PROGRAM AT RTI FOR THE SPRING TERM: TRAVIS BROWN, STEVEN MADISON, AND PAMELA PERRY

EVERETT LEAVES FOR THE BIG APPLE

Everett McCorvey has been chosen for the cast of New York's Radio City Music Hall's revival of George Gershwin's folk opera, 'Porgy and Bess.' The show, produced by Sherman M. Goldman, who also produced the Houston Grand Opera production in 1976, will open in Chicago on February 14 for a four-week performance after which the company will return to Radio City Music Hall for a two-month's run beginning March 19. Plans are being made for the company to tour Europe this summer. McCorvey was chosen as one of 90 members to comprise the three casts from auditions held this fall in New York.

In addition to directing Shelton Singers and teaching voice at Shelton over the past two years, has also appeared with the Birmingham Civic Opera, Whitewater Opera Company in Richmond Indiana, Birmingham Town and Gown Theater, Blossom Music Festival in Cleveland, Ohio, and the Aspen Music Festival. He is a soloist with Christ Episcopal Church in Tuscaloosa and a student on Edward White.

ON TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, HE WILL BE HONORED BY THE SHELTON SINGERS AND THE AFRO AMERICAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION WITH 'EVERETT MCCORVEY DAY' IN THE JUNIOR COLLEGE AUDITORIUM. ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE RECEPTION WHICH WILL LAST FROM 12 NOON UNTIL 1 P.M.

TECHNICAL TALK

By Lyda Black

Hats off to various departments at the technical division for their contribution to the first place finish of the Shelton float in the Christmas parade. The theme was 'Christmas Around the World,' and Shelton drafting instructor Bill Stringfellow and the following students are to be congratulated for working so diligently on it: Mary Beht Kennedy; Melinda Moss; Marie Mayfield; Brad Shows; Chris Ballard; Allan Porter; James Stewart; John Harless; Gary Richardson; Patrick Buchman; Matthew Kelly. The technical Division hosted the annual Christmas breakfast on December 17. The food and fellowship were both superb! The winners in the cosmetology department's 'Holiday Style Show' are: first place, Chervette Adams, second place, Janet Pa te; honorable mention, Camille Highes and Judy Smith.

DON'T FORGET: STUDENTS AT THE TECHNICAL DIVISION ARE ENCOURAGED TO ENTER THE 1983 MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT. THERE ARE SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES AVAILABLE TO THE WINNERS.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

▷ NFA FIRE INCIDNET MANAGEMENT - January 29-30, Greenville, Alabama

Fire incident Management is designed for those fire officers and senior fire service personnel who will perform command, line and staff functions at fire emergencies. Management principles and techniques of planning, organizing and controlling are applied to simulated fire situations through individual and group activities. Specific topics include: resource determination and allocation; estimating required fire flow; implementing the Incident Command System (ICS). The course emphasizes command and control rather than strategy and tactics. Registration fee is $10 per person and advanced registration is recommended.

PAINTINGS ON EXHIBIT

Paintings by Bruce Crowe are currently on exhibit through January 28 in the library of Shelton State Junior College. Mr. Crowe, a resident of Northport, is an instructor in the art education department at The University of Alabama and had exhibited through out the southeast.

STUDENT LIFE COMMITTEE WILL MEET WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, IN DEAN LEE'S OFFICE.
ALL STUDENTS ARE INVITED